Are the best months in which to purify your blood. During the winter months the blood becomes thin and impure, the body becomes weak and tired, the appetite may be lost, and just now the system craves the aid of a reliable medicine. Langley's Sarsaparilla is peculiarly adapted to purify and enrich the blood, to create a good appetite and to overcome that tired feeling. It increases in popularity every year is the ideal spring medicine. It renews the kidneys and liver, tones the digestive organs, restores appetite, purifies and vitalizes the impure and sluggish blood, cures the headache and overcomes all the prostrating effects of that tired feeling.

The Spring Medicine

At the coming of spring the blood should be purified, as impurities which have been accumulating for months, or even years, are liable to manifest themselves and seriously affect the health. Langley's Sarsaparilla is undoubtedly the best blood purifier. It expels every taint of impurity, drives out scrofulous humors and germs of disease and gives to the blood the quality and tone essential to good health.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

Legislators Resume Legislation After the Easter Holidays.

Debate on the Timber Marking Act and Other Measures —20-Mile Belt.

TUESDAY, April 8th.

Mr. Speaker took the chair at 2 p.m.

Prayers by the Rev. Dr. Reid.

The leader of the government brought down returns asking for by the house in reference to the disallowance of certain acts.

TIMBER MARKING.

Mr. Haslam moved the house into committee of the whole to consider an act respecting the marking of timber. The introducer explained that the object of the bill was to allow persons engaged in logging to register a timber mark by which logs could be identified when they were lost by a boom breaking or otherwise.

Mr. Orr said a bill of this kind was very good for the eastern provinces where the bill was thoroughly and decidedly unworkable and would work injustice to hand loggers and to people who paid a license to cut timber on the crown lands. He moved that the committee rise.

Messrs. Croft and Fry spoke in favor of the bill.

Mr. Orr said a law like this might do very well for Cowichan river but for no other part of the province.

Mr. Haslam said he had never thought of Cowichan river. The bill on the other hand was brought in at the suggestion of loggers on Harrison and Pitt rivers. At the present time there were only two firms in the province using timber marks, but if they lost a boom and it was picked up, there was nothing to prevent the parties picking it up claiming that the mark on the logs was put on by themselves because no one had a legalized timber mark. The bill was specially in the interest of hand loggers.

Bill reported to the House and read a first time.

THE TWENTY-MILE BELT.

Mr. Orr asked the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works: Has the boundary lines of the twenty mile belt of land on each side of the Canadian Pacific Railway been defined? and, if not, what steps do the government intend to take in order that such lines may be determined as early as possible?

Ans—The boundary lines of the twenty-mile belt on each side of the Canadian Pacific Railway have not, so far as the provincial government is concerned, been yet defined. The Dominion Government has for some years been engaged in running approximate boundary lines, but the result of their work has not yet been submitted to the provincial government. It is the intention of the provincial government to press upon the federal authorities the necessity of having the work completed at the earliest possible date.

Mr Grant moved on further consideration of the report on Bill (No. 2) "An Act to amend the 'Municipal Act, 1889,'" the following is a new section: Section 104 of the "Municipal Act, 1889," is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:—"Unless a requisition signed by at least twenty electors is presented to the council, requesting the council to submit another by-law for the same purpose to the electors for their assent, and the said twenty electors agree to pay all the expenses incurred by the council in the passage of such by-law and submission of the same to the electors, in case the same is rejected by the electors, and the said twenty electors also give to or deposit with the council security to the satisfaction of the council for the due payment of all such expenses as aforesaid."

The mover explained that the ratepayers having passed adverse judgment upon a question, sometimes changed their minds on account of new information they had acquired. The object of the amendment was to give them another chance to express their opinion on it just as the Attorney General having once lost his case in court brought it up again at the first opportunity on discovering new and important evidence.

The attorney general opposed the amendment because it would be the cause of no end of election turmoil.

Mr. Grant—They vote on the same thing two or three times in one year in some places. Make it not more than twice a year in this province, if you wish.

The attorney-general would object to even that.

Mr. Ladner had seen the working of a provision like this and was strongly opposed to it.

Mr. Beaven said the principle of the present law was that the ratepayers should have the opportunity to place funds in the hands of the council for special purposes, once during its term of office. That he considered a sound principle and it should be retained.

On a vote the amendment was lost.

The billiard tournament, in which Schaefer, Daly and other celebrities are to participate, opened at Central Music hall, Chicago, on Saturday, before 3000 people with a game between Slosson and Catton, the former playing 500 to the latter's 250. Slosson played admirably, and won with ease. The score was: Slosson, 500; average, 25; highest run, 105; Catton, 382 (250 being added); average, 6 9-15; highest run, 47.

Mr. R. E. Gosnell, city editor of the News-Advertiser, has retired on the advice of the doctors from journalism. Mr. Gosnell is an experienced newspaper man, a statement that conveys higher praise than the average newspaper reader may be able to discern. Had Mr Gosnell's health permitted him to continue in his chosen profession, he would unquestionably have made his mark as a journalist, but we have no doubt the rewards will be greater in commercial life.

TO-DAY'S DESPATCHES.

Ex-Speaker Randall Dying—A Thousand Laborers Left by the Umatilla.

A French Paper Attacks England—Process of Hanging Chinese Criminals.

UTILITY OF RAIN.

New York, April 5.—The water which swept last Sunday has flooded the New York end of the Hudson river tunnel, was rapidly pumped out yesterday. Since Monday every means that could be thought of has been employed to stop the leaks. Divers descended it and after considerable time gave up the search. They succeeded however in closing the doors. Then Engineer May used a novel method of finding the leaks. He secured a number of water rats yesterday and tied long pieces of oakum to their tails, caught in the middle by a piece of wire. The rats were then forced into the caisson through air pumps. The rats, following the current of air, found the leaks, and passing through crevices left the oakum behind. This stopped the ingress of air sufficiently to enable the pumping to proceed with success.

PRAISE FOR PUGET SOUND.

San Francisco, April 8.—T. K. Stateler, San Francisco agent of the Northern Pacific railroad, has just returned from an extended trip through Oregon and Washington. Mr. Stateler spent considerable time on the Sound and is enthusiastic in his praises of the enterprise and progress everywhere manifested. He says that in Tacoma the amount of building now under way is astonishing. Not only are numerous residences of beautiful design being erected, but substantial blocks are also being constructed just as in San Francisco. Most of the buildings are being constructed as they are wanted and strongly built; the people are not putting up cheap shanties, but buildings which would compare favorably with any town. Tiles and brick is largely used, many of the vessels arriving from Japan bring as ballast Japan bricks, which are used with fine effect. Building in Seattle is close on to Tacoma's heels. Hotels are crowded to overflowing with men who are out looking for investments. In fact, the whole Sound country is on a keen jump and everything is at high pressure.

END OF A FEUD.

New York, April 8.—The World's special from Louisville says: The Spurlocks, Days, and other representatives of both the Howard and Turner factions, have just held a pow-wow, and both sides have agreed to suspend hostilities and forever bury the hatchet; and it was also agreed that should any more bushwhacking take place, both sides would turn out on a hunt down.

EX-SPEAKER DYING.

New York, April 8.—The Tribune says: Ex-Speaker Randall is in a dying condition, a fact which is now realized and believed by his family. Until to day his wife, who has been most faithful in her attentions upon him, had been in strong hopes and expection that her husband would pull through. Now she is prepared for the inevitable. Mr. Randall has been low all day and during the last 48 hours he failed to recognize any of his family. It is apparent he is sinking bodily and death is imminent.

INDIANA ELECTIONS.

New York, April 8.—The Sun's Indianapolis special says: Township elections occurred throughout Indiana today. They always interest politicians because the result almost infallibly indicates which party will be successful in the fall. Two years ago township trustees were almost divided between Democratic and Republican parties, and the presidential election that followed the election was so very close that it required several days to determine who carried the state. Returns from many counties to-night indicate a steady Democratic gain of trustees. In Field county Democrats make a clean sweep. They also gain trustees in Miami, Clark, Madison and other counties. Indianapolis town, a strong two years ago gave the Republican candidates a majority of 1,600; to-night the gains already are so large that this majority will be wiped out and Democratic trustees elected.

CLEVELAND ON BLAINE.

New York, April 8.—The World's special from Boston says: In a recent interview with Samuel Mendumsey of United Question Club's express, Cleveland criticised Blaine's attitude towards the South American republics in a pleasant way and said he thought the secretary of state would eventually see the wisdom of coming out strongly for reciprocity."

TOOK HIS LIFE.

New York, April 8.—A special from Fort Smith, Ark., says: J. S. Skidmore, a well known architect and engineer, was found dead in his office this morning. A letter was found on his desk explaining that he had taken his life because his wife had frequently wished he was dead, and he did it to gratify her. He had taken twelve grains of morphine. Skidmore was given to drinking at times and was intoxicated when he took his life. He was a man of considerable means and his wife is a most estimable woman.

LAW AS TO MEAT.

Richmond, Va., April 8.—United States Judge Hughes has rendered a decision on an appeal of Armour & Co., of Chicago, declaring the meat inspection law passed by the legislature to be contrary to the federal constitution. The decision is elaborate and takes the ground that inspection is not meant as a sanitary measure but as a state revenue measure, and that the tax of a cent a pound is outrageous and that meat slaughtered within 120 miles of the place of delivery could be sold under the law in an unsound condition.

ANOTHER HIGH SCHEME.

New York, April 8.—Henry B. Slavin, formerly a San Francisco druggist, but more generally known elsewhere by his connection with dredging the Panama canal, has a new scheme on hand. A well-known civil engineer and intimate friend of Slavin's says that the latter has just sailed for Egypt. Slavin announced that his visit to the land of the ancient Pharoahs was merely for pleasure, but his engineering friend has good grounds for stating that Slavin intends to revive his old scheme of flooding the Sahara desert, by cutting a canal from the Red Sea.

KILLED WHILE FIGHTING.

Newburgh, N. Y., April 8.—Last night about eleven o'clock two Italians, reeling at Tompkins Cove, were returning home from an Easter jollification and were walking down on the West Shore railway track. When near Tompkins Cove the men had a quarrel over something and proceeded to settle their difference by a fist fight. In interested did the men become in pummelling each other that they did not hear the approach of a train, and notwithstanding the engineer did all in his power to bring the train to a standstill, his efforts were without avail and the locomotive struck the men, killing one instantly and crushing the skull of the other.

LABOR TROUBLES OVER.

Chicago, April 8.—The plumbers strike was peacefully settled this morning at a conference between committees of journeymen plumbers and master plumbers. The conditions of the settlement are a compromise, and provides a minimum of $3.50 a day for all journeymen plumbers and an increase of 25 cents in wages of juniors. The agreement was formally ratified at a joint meeting this morning. Cigar makers settled one of their grievances yesterday when the Phœnix Cigar Co., took back all of its old men, about 60 in number, and agreed hereafter to employ none but union men.

CARPENTER'S STRIKE.

Chicago, April 8.—It was stated early this morning that the carpenters strike would end to-day. Terms of agreement are not given out, but it is understood that the journeymen have abandoned their demand for a uniform scale for all workmen and will accept grades from $3.50 to $3.75; apprentices will also get a raise.

NO BOOM FOR THEM.

San Francisco, April 5.—Nearly 1000 people congregated yesterday morning to witness the departure of the Umatilla. The vessel has been receiving quantities of freight, not expecting any great rush of passengers, but a short time before her departure nearly 200 laboring men gathered to go aboard her and were disappointed, the vessel being already crowded by nearly 400 passengers. The applicants wanted to go to Port Townsend, where they expected to secure work on the new railroad in course of construction there. Some of them were loud in their protestations when they learned that they could not embark on the Umatilla. Only about fifty were lucky enough to secure berths.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

FRENCH AFFAIRS.

Paris, April 8.—Le Clesly urges the government to hasten to renewal demands upon Great Britain for the evacuation of Egypt. The paper asserts France never assented to the presence of British troops on the Nile more than she assented to occupy a place in Lorraine by Germans. The cabinet met at the Elysee palace to-day and discussed the further of the release of the Duc D'Orleans.

WILLIAM'S VAGARIES.

London, April 8.—Edmund Yates cables to the N. Y. Tribune: The federal princes of the German empire have no sort of belief in the brilliant capacity of Emp ror William. They are disgusted and terrified by his recent vagaries.

BERNHARDT TO BE BOYCOTTED.

London, April 8.—There has been an appeal made by the High Church and Catholic priests to their respective congregations to boycott Sarah Bernhardt while in London as punishment for what they call her "blasphemy in reading part of the Virgin Mary."

THE CZAR IS WELL.

St. Petersburg, April 8.—The Czar returns to the Imperial Palace at Gattchina on April 25th. He has recovered from his recent illness.

HANGED.

London, April 8.—Richard Davies, who together with his younger brother, George, was sentenced to death for the murder of their father, was hanged at Crewe to-day. George Davies was reprieved by the Home Secretary a few days ago.

LABOR MEETING.

Geneva, April 8.—At a meeting held at Olten, at which were present 247 delegates representing 120,000 workmen, resolutions were adopted providing for the aid of sick and a system of insurance against accident. Resolutions were also adopted calling for amendments to the factory laws now existing, which will tend to make them more favorable to the laboring classes.

The new subdivision of Victoria comprises Lots 7 and 8, 37 and 38 of the Work Estate. Bouchier, Croft & Mallette are the brokers.

CHINESE EXECUTION.

Six of the Mine Rioters Put to Death at Hongkong.

London, April 8.—Letters received from Hongkong report another wholesale execution to that city of offenders recently condemned.

This case numbered six and were the last more convicted of meeting riots at the Kontoon mine, Mong Tzze, in Yunnan province.

Before the prisoners were executed a rich banquet was served them by the mandarin, consisting of roast pork and duck, fish and rice, with an abundance of Chinese wines.

The condemned were then freed from their fetters. Their hands were tied behind their backs and they were led to the place of execution surrounded by troops who fired volleys into the air from time to time.

Upon their arrival the sentence was read to the prisoners and they were given into the hands of the executioners.

PROCTOR'S SON.

The Offspring of the English Astronomer a Lunatic.

New York, April 8.—The World's St. Joseph, Mo., special says: There is much excitement here over the strange actions of Richard Proctor, only son of the late famous English astronomer who died in New York a year ago of yellow fever. Proctor, who is a young man of twenty-one has until recently been looked upon as unusually intelligent. About two months ago, however, he began to act strangely, wandering about at night and hurling stones through windows of residences, and at his own home would chop furniture to pieces. Two weeks ago Mrs. Proctor took him to Denver, where she secured, and he caused himself as the Pullman car by appropriating the raiment of sleeping female passengers and dressing in the garments, and was only induced to surrender them to the owners in the morning by force. He believes he is very wealthy and owns all the real estate in St. Joseph. He contracts large debts, which are with difficulty paid by his mother and sisters, who are poor. It was decided this afternoon to have him committed to an insane asylum.

(Special to The Times.)

Ottawa, April 8.—A delegation of lumbermen, representing several million dollars, waited on the government to-day and asked for the removal of increased duty on pork and on the woods and, which could not be produced in Canada, if a likely some representations will be made.

Pork packers of Toronto and Hamilton also waited on the government and asked that the duty remain as now stand. A large number of other delegations are here protesting against tariff changes.

WM. TEMPLEMAN, MANAGER.

THE BOARD OF TRADE AND THE TARIFF.

The time is opportune to enquire in respect to the action the Board of Trade has taken, or proposes taking, in the matter of the increased taxes imposed by the Federal government on the people of this province. The Board of Trade exists solely to protect and advance the commercial interests of the community. It is composed of business men, who take cognizance only of trade questions. Here is a most important question for its consideration, one involving the prosperity of the province, and the unfortunate tax-payers are looking to the Board for an authoritative repudiation, on the part of the great interests it represents, of the terrible burden which the Liberal-Conservative government has just placed upon the people of British Columbia. It is time that the Board spoke.

THE GUARANTEE PROMISED.

It is currently reported, and the report receives general credence, that a promise has been wrung from the government by the parties interested in the two electric street car companies, and that a measure authorizing a provincial guarantee will be passed before the House rises. We are inclined to believe the report, and for two reasons: First, the "natural depravity" of the government, which encourages spoliation of the revenues of the people, and, in the second place, the "combine" was too strong to be resisted. For the past month or two, prominent citizens from the mainland have haunted the portals of the House, over the door of which Ropses has written in indelible characters: "RECIPROCITY IN POLITICS—VOTE FOR VOTE—COME AND BUY." They wined and dined the ministers, coddled the automatons known as the ministerial "following," whose duty, like the noble six hundred, is never "to reason why," and all the while tried to look as innocent as sucking doves. Then there was the allied army of raiders from Victoria, including "the greatest Roman of them all," who, notwithstanding anything the Colonist people may say or think to the contrary, has something else in his head besides "May" and electricity. These two powers of evil, pretending to represent constituencies which return about one-half of the members of the House, were too strong for an invertebrate government, and compelled it to surrender at discretion. The guarantee has been promised! What next? The elections—a plebescite—the political death of the gambleers who are playing for high stakes upon the credit of a state. If such should not be the verdict—if the wrong is to go unpunished, and the wrong-doers are again licensed to buy and sell as before—then, British Columbia is in the hands of boodlers indeed.

FRUIT DUTIES.

As to fruit duties, it is the opinion of the Toronto Mail that the reimposing of them is of "doubtful wisdom." Under the new schedule the duty on a barrel of apples is 40 cents. Last year Canada imported 70,000 barrels of apples from the United States, but on the other hand, Canada also exported 144,000 barrels. "Why, then," the Mail asks, "is the duty required?" The Mail proceeds to propound and answer the following questions:

"If it should be answered that the duty is necessary to protect us from imports, the reply is the surplus of 74,000 barrels exported. If it should be said that the duty is necessary to keep up the price, Mr. Foster must explain why it is, if the American price is lower than ours, we sent the 144,000 barrels across the line instead of selling them here. Then, as to the smaller fruits, blackberries, gooseberries, raspberries, and strawberries, the duty is to be three cents a pound. But this is not the full volume of the tax. It is provided that the package in which these fruits come shall also pay duty at the three-cent rate. Strawberries come in cases containing thirty-two boxes. The berries weigh thirty-two pounds and the case thirty-three pound. The importer of thirty-two pounds of berries, therefore, must pay a tax of three cents per pound on an aggregate weight of sixty-five pounds. Thus the actual duty on the berries is rather more than six cents per pound. The consumer will really pay a tax of seven cents on each box of imported berries. It is interesting to enquire upon whom this tax will fall, and what influence it will have upon the Ontario fruit-grower. Light is thrown upon these points by last year's trade returns. The berries of all kinds imported in 1889 were as follows":

	POUNDS.
Ontario	546,9[illegible]
Quebec	86,5[illegible]
Nova Scotia	12,[illegible]
New Brunswick	19,0[illegible]
Manitoba	20,0[illegible]
British Columbia	85,1[illegible]
Prince Edward Island	7,0[illegible]
Total	1,761,5[illegible]

"The last five provinces mentioned," continues the Mail, "are too far from Ontario to become the markets for fruit which must go into consumption promptly after it is picked. Ontario and Quebec took together 1,400,000 pounds of the live fruits; blackberries, gooseberries, cranberries, strawberries and raspberries. The major proportion of these fruits comes in in advance of our season. It follows, therefore, that the tax upon them cannot help our producers. It simply lifts the berries, in the early summer, beyond the reach of the middle classes and the poor. When our berry season is at its height that of the United States is declining. At such a time the duty is still useless for the purposes of the protectionists, for the price he receives will not be the American price with the duty added, but a Canadian price, which is of course regulated by local circumstances, such as the quantity and quality of the yield, the possible production of to-morrow, or the necessity for a quick sale. No Ontario fruit grower surely can expect that he will receive during the coming season seven cents more per box than he received last year.

As further showing the superlative character of Mr. FOSTER'S ignorance with the subject he has undertaken to deal, it appears that at the annual meeting of the Fruit Growers association last month a member from Essex strongly opposed the reimposition of these duties. He said his principal market was Detroit. If our duties should evoke retaliatory duties on fruit, he said his neighbors would be shut out of Detroit, and as a consequence their yield would have to find a market in Ontario, in which event our duties, supposing them designed to contract the supply and keep up prices, would turn out to be not merely nugatory but downright harmful.

Now while but few persons will be found who will not agree that the reimposition of the fruit duties, is not only a hardship but will be positively harmful, the saving feature is that it was done in order to anticipate a hostile tariff on the part of the Americans. There is a good deal of the cutting off the nose to spite the face business about this kind of procedure, and it will be discovered in the long run that it will smash "National Policy" instead of assisting it. But let us see if there were really good grounds for retaliation. GOLDWIN SMITH discussing the subject in The Bystander says:

"People here have annexation on the brain and fancy that the eyes of the Americans are always fixed on them with predatory intentions, when, in point of fact, the eyes of the Americans are very seldom turned this way. The struggle at the next presidential election will be for the farmer's vote. The Republicans, who are also the Protectionists, hold it last time by the tie of party allegiance which the farmer is very slow to break, as he is very slow to change in any way. But they know that the farmer was voting for his party against his interest and that even he cannot be trusted to do this for ever. They seek therefore to bind him by his interest as well as his loyalty to their system. At the last election the Republicans promised that they would give high protection and they are now keeping their word. This, not a design against Canadian independence, is probably the explanation of the move; though it is true and has often been pointed out in answer to the charges brought by monopolists here against Commercial Unionists, that the extreme Annexationists in the United States are always opposed to Commercial Union."

GOLDWIN SMITH, whatever may be his foibles, in this instance, comes pretty near hitting the truth. There is a good deal of humbumbe in the States, but the leading men are no fools. They don't want Canada unless Canada is willing. Canada unwillingly annexed to the United States would prove an element of weakness. The Americans are profoundly aware of that and as they do not regard Canada in any sense a menace they prefer to let her alone. If, therefore, the government in imposing increased duties did so in the spirit of retaliation, they have, to say the least, been premature, and we fancy the outcome will be that the government must either back down or suffer defeat at the next general elections.

"MINOR" AND THE NEWS.

If, as "Minor" in the News says, the Fernhill railway, Tacoma, proved a paying investment; that the electric railroad from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, to Stratton, was a success, and that hence it is reasonable to expect that the Vancouver-Westminster electric railway will prove a remunerative concern, why should the government be invited into partnership? Why is not capital anxious to prosecute the scheme itself? The News, rejoining to "Minor," lays bare the animus at the bottom of the assault on the treasury.

"It would be difficult," says the News, "to get a stronger confirmation of the views which we have expressed throughout—that the sole object of these promoters in putting forward the demand, is to enable them, by getting the credit of the province for their scheme, to make a larger profit than it would be possible to do otherwise. In other words, instead of being satisfied with good returns for money invested in a private speculation, they demand that every taxpayer in the province shall incur a certain responsibility and the possibility of being called upon to provide the interest on those bonds, in order that the speculators may be able to dispose of the securities at a much larger figure than would be justified by their intrinsic value, and at the same time be relieved of all financial responsibility in regard to them."

This is the gist of the whole matter. If Vancouver and New Westminster want to guarantee the bonds of the railway in question there could be no objections, these cities being directly interested. What are governments for? it has been said, but to assist in the development of the country. Granted; but governments are not for the purpose of developing local enterprises that the promoters should reap more than legitimate profits.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"Mr. GLADSTONE'S speech at the National Liberal Club on Monday has given rise to something very like a scandal on one hand, and grave parts discontent on the other. The Daily News refused to report it, because reporters were not invited to the dinner, but were only allowed to come in after the food and drink had been consumed." The omission cannot be attributed to any fault of GLADSTONE'S. The fault lay, probably, with some ass of a committee man who guaged the self respect of reporters by the inferior article which he called his own. The sight of men occupying positions of honor and responsibility sneaking into a dining room after an orgie is over to partake of scraps and beer taps, like a lot of LAZZARONES, would have been an edifying sight indeed. It is a matter for congratulation that the News took the stand it did. Unless the newspapers assert their self respect, it is hardly likely that the small soul of the average English committee man will do so for them.

THE WILY CHINAMEN

Working into Uncle Sam's Territory from the South.

San Diego, April 6.—Thirteen Chinese were arrested last night in an attempt to cross the line between Mexico to the United States at Tiajuana. They had come up overland from Ensenada, Lower California, and are thought to be a part of 87 taken there on the last trip of the steamer Newbern, from San Francisco. They were transferred by that vessel from the steamer from Chiua.

The whole 87 had tickets to Mazatlan and Guaymas, but all disembarked at Rosenada. It is thought they intended to cross into the United States as soon as possible.

The Ontario Legislature was prorogued on Monday.

Premier Mercier has notified his followers that the provincial elections will be held within the next 60 days.

Hon. Chas. Tupper left for Washington on Monday to resume his duties in connection with the Behring Sea negotiations.

The Bremer block, Waterford, Ont., has been destroyed by fire. A number of the occupants lost heavily. The total loss is $64,000.

A petition has been filed at Osgoode Hall against the return of Dr. Montague of the Dominion House, as member for Haldimand at the election in February last.

Charles Macintosh, ex-member for Ottawa, will be asked to contest the seat rendered vacant by Mr. Porley's death, in the Conservative interest. Charley is an old hoodler.

Mrs. Weeks, Charlottetown, charged with having administered arsenic to Mrs. Sutherland, with the intent to cause her death, has been committed for trial and liberated on ten thousand dollars bail.

Judge Botsford, Moncton, fainted, and fell through the second story window in the Moncton club, and struck the sidewalk below on his back, sustaining internal injuries which proved fatal. The deceased was 77 years old.

At the McGill University convocation donations amounting to nearly one million dollars is announced. Sir Donald Smith gives a quarter of a million for the women's branch; and W. C. McDonald, tobacco manufacturer, gives half a million for science, technology, and school architecture.

Viscount Boyle, now Earl of Shannon, who is wanted to take charge of his father's estate, and who was formerly a member of the Northwest council, is said to be in Alaska and not in Africa. He is supposed to be in a mining camp about a hundred miles from Sitka. The New York Herald authorized the fitting out of a search expedition, to proceed from Victoria to Sitka in search of the missing lord, and at present vigilant enquiries are being made about him.

INCIPIENT REBELLION.

Newfoundlanders Cheer the Star Spangled Banner and Are Mad.

Halifax, April 6.—Advices from Newfoundland show a high state of excitement throughout the colony over the fishery modus vivendi negotiated by Great Britain. Newfoundlanders claim that Great Britain sacrificed the sacred rights belonging to the island. Demonstrations are being held all over the country denouncing Downing street officials. A great mass meeting at St. John, 4,000 present, passed the strongest and most denunciatory resolutions that could be conceived. Speakers were cheered to the echo. Business was wholly suspended for the day and a procession of 10,000 paraded the streets with banners in which the United States "Big Injined" prominently. When the "Star Spangled Banner" was played by a dozen bands 30,000 persons shouted themselves hoarse. Delegations will be dispatched to England, Scotland and Ireland to enlist public sympathy so that such pressure may be brought to bear on the Salisbury government as to cause it to abrogate the treaty. If this fails the colony will ask redress protection from the United States under annexation. The French have pulled down several lobster factories at Hawling Point. Fishermen there have been called upon to arm themselves with guns, one man with Gatling guns, to end further molestation or encroachment. People are asked not only to refuse in the slightest degree to recognize the treaty but to unite in driving the French away from the shores of Newfoundland.

RELIGIOUS QUESTIONS

Unusual Broad Views of Two Scotch Ministers.

If the following paragraphs clipped from the Edinburgh Scotsman of the 1st of March indicate anything, it is that the clergymen of the Scottish capital are far from being cramped on two, at least, of the burning questions of the day.

THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

The sermon by Dr. Mitchell, which has aroused the wrath of teetotallers of Leith, was a very outspoken one. Dealing with Paul's advice to Timothy, he said: Timothy had been a water drinker exclusively, and Paul recommends a little wine, recommends him to give up his total abstinence and to become "a moderate drinker"—a phrase which many apply to our day to those whom they call the great promoters of drunkenness. Paul was not a medical man, it is true, but he recommended this to Timothy; and there are many cases still in which it is the proper remedy, even although recommended by no medical man. If any man feels, and knows, and is persuaded that his brain is enervated, and his will power, and his body fitter for the work which he has to do, either for God or for man, by the moderate use of that which in excess is intoxicating, who has a right to condemn him? If any man is conscious that he does his work more effectively by drinking a little rather than by drinking nothing, it is his duty to be no longer a mere water-drinker. There is only one ground on which the total abstinence movement can stand secure, and that is the principle laid down by the same Apostle—"If meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend"—but to say that the use of wine is in itself sinful and ought to be forbidden to all, that every man who issues it is likely to become a drunkard, and that publicans ought to be excluded from church fellowship as if their exclusive aim in life is to say what is warranted neither by Scripture, by experience, nor by Christian charity.

IVORY FROM ALASKA.

Surviving Signs of Life Before the Last Great Ice Drift.

Geologists tell us that at one time the frozen tundras of Siberia and the vast steppes of Alaska, where the ground never thaws beyond a couple of feet below the surface, were covered with a bountiful growth of plants, grass and trees. On these the mammoth lived and reared his young, while besides him, and even at war with him, primeval man flourished, and for all we know may have built cities and made some progress in the arts of civilization. But at one time the last grand ice drift started on its voyage from the realms of the pole toward the equator, and the life of Northern Asia and Northern America expired in its frozen grasp. The mammoth, shielded by his long hair, existed for a while, but at last he succumbed, sometimes we confidently think his tusks had not time to decay, and to day we find him standing erect in the morass where he lived and out of which his legs, frozen for ages, have to be chopped with axes.

Professor Davidson, a high authority on such questions, says the ice that may be considerable quantities may be taken from Alaska. But there appears no reason for supposing that the mammoth abounded more on the west side of Behring straits than on the eastern shore. In fact, mammoths have already been discovered on Professor Davidson admits, in portions of Alaska; and news comes that a syndicate has been formed for the purpose of procuring their ivory tusks, which are now of great value and which will undoubtedly continue to become more valuable as the elephant is being exterminated. For about a thousand years Northern Siberia has exported a large amount of ivory to Russia. And at present it is estimated that not less than a hundred pairs of tusks are found every twelve months and shipped to the Czar's commercial centre. In fact, the miserable people who exist on the tundras of inhospitable Siberia depend to a great extent for their subsistence upon the discovery of entombed mammoths. The bodies of these monsters, embedded in the icy ground in which they have remained for thousands of years, are found, it is alleged, all the way from the mouth of the Obi to Behring's straits.—Philadelphia Press.

THE COOK STRUCK.

This Powerful Person Manages to Close the Savoy Hotel.

London, April 6.—There is a singular strike in progress at the popular Savoy Hotel on the Thames embankment. A new manager was recently appointed who was unlucky enough to offend that powerful personage, the chief. The monarch of the kitchen struck work and his sixty cooks followed his example. The waiters joined in the strike and next come the maids and the porters. The hotel was completely shut up and unless the manager makes terms with the chief the house will lose the benefit of the holiday trade which is an important item.

No Dust.

There is no such stove polish as the "Nonpareil." Only 20 cents per bottle. Ask your grocer for it, or at Geo. Phillips', No. 152 Government street.

Weather and Spring Bonnets.

Speculations as to the cause of the late spring are numerous and it is agreed by all, who have lived in the province for any length of time, that the season has not been so late for many years. Some who keep track of the weather state that very much such a spring as the present occurred 15 years ago, when the cold weather extended on into May.

The effect of the late season was plainly observed on Easter Sunday, when the church decorators found that a great scarcity of flowers existed—something unusual in Victoria. It is remarked also that not a solitary spring bonnet made its appearance on that day, as they were wont in times past, but the more sombre colors still decorated the heads of church choirs and other people.

A Brilliant Record.

The Northern Pacific with a modesty which is characteristic of the period, demands of Anacortes the insignificant largess of 500 acres as the condition of their making that place their permanent terminal point. Five hundred acres comprises the area of a fair sized town itself, being only 140 acres less than a square mile, and as land is selling is equivalent to a bonus of $1,000,000. Nor can the Anacortes people refuse to comply with the demand. They must either have a railway or fold up their portable goods and steal silently away. If Anacortes is a good terminal point for a railway, it is not Anacortes which should be the suppliant but the railway. We question whether the game is worth the candle. It is hard times when a town must give a railway two or three millions to get it to locate on the premises. It is said, however, that 300 acres already have been pledged. The Northern Pacific ought to be content with this amount.

A Showman's Idea.

P. T. Barnum asked what novel feature he would propose for the World's Fair, Chicago, suggested the exhibition of the mummified corpse of Rameses II., the Pharoah of the Exodus who with his daughter are now in the museum of Boolak in Egypt. Let the fair managers, says Barnum, obtain the loan of these mortuary relics from the Egyptian government and allow the Khedive to send his own soldiers to guard the coffin. Think of the stupendousness of the incongruity! To exhibit to the people of the Nineteenth century in a country not discovered until 2000 or 3000 years after his death, that corpse of the king of whom we have the earliest record! Consider, too, that the corpse is so perfectly preserved after thousands of years in the tomb that its features are almost perfect; so perfect that every man, women and child who looks upon the mummy may know the countenance of the despot who exerted so great an influence upon the history of the world.

At the annual meeting of the Dundee East End Football Club, the Rev. Hugh George Watt, St. Enoch's Established Church, Dundee, said that it was not to be wondered at that the game of football was disliked by the minister, who found the pews in his church rather empty on a Sunday, because the young men of his congregation had not recovered from the fatigue of the Saturday match. A remedy he said might be found for that by putting off the matches until the Sunday afternoon. He was afraid that was too strong a remedy to mention in Sabbatarian Scotland, but seriously speaking, he would rather see the young men playing a game of football on Sunday afternoon than feel that football playing on Saturday prevented them from going to church at all.

Easter Tea.

The ladies of St. James' church will entertain their friends—which will mean all who attend—at the cathedral school room this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. A choice programme of music will be included—and all for 25 cents. The room ought to be too small to contain the audience.

A Curiosity.

The greatest "candle" on earth was seen by Stanley when in Africa, then burning at Tippoo Tib's headquarters on the Congo. So striking was the article that he purchased it and brought it on to London where it is now on exhibition. This curiosity is known all over that great city as the St. Thomas Candle. Facsimile of the above has been sent down to us by our agent in London and on Wednesday will be on exhibition in the show window of the Lansdowne House, 86 Yates street. Car fare to the store five cents. Ap 7 2t

Cheap Carpet.

Ferry or Bridge.

The citizens of New Westminster are agitating for some means of transit from that city to Brownsville across the river. Whether it is to be by ferry or bridge is not yet decided, but a move is soon to be made in the matter.

Died on the Way.

Gertie Grant, the abandoned woman who was taken from this city on the last trip of the steamship Umatilla, died from consumption while on the way to San Francisco. The woman was a sister to the store-keeper on the vessel, and was being taken to their home by him.

Correction.

By one of those unaccountable over sights which occasionally occur, the name of Mr. Barrie was used instead of Mr. Buttress Trimen in the item of yesterday describing Mr. James Angus' new house. The design was that of Mr. Trimen, and Mr Tiarks superintended the construction.

The Renowned Cornetist.

Jules Levy, the great cornet player, assisted by a company of artists, will once delight Victorian music lovers. Throughout the musical world Levy's name has been a tower of strength, and here is no doubt but what a cordial welcome will greet him here.

Hastings Ahoy.

On Queen's birthday a grand programme of games is to be carried out at Hasting's park; $500 worth of prizes are to be given for all kinds of athletic sports, running, jumping, wrestling, throwing the hammer, tossing the caber, and in fact everything to make a grand gala day. No start has yet been made by the citizens of Victoria towards a celebration.

For the Alaska Route.

The San Francisco Examiner says that the Haytien Republic will probably be put on the Alaska route after this trip. The Haytien Republic belongs to the Leibes Fur Company, which secured the sealing privileges in Alaska. When she was brought around the Horn it was the idea to run her to Alaska from San Francisco, and the vessel did make several trips to that far off land.

Funeral of Donald Chisholm.

The funeral of the late Donald Chisholm, M. P., took place yesterday at New Westminster, and was very largely attended. Representatives from all parts of the district were present, and the procession was joined by nearly every person of prominence. High requiem mass was celebrated at St. Peter's R. C. Cathedral by Rev. Father Fayard, and the body was interred at Sapperton. The remains will most probably be later on removed to Antigonish, N. S.

Just the chance for workingmen who wish to build. Very cheap lots convenient to centre of city on Burnside Road. Bourchier, Croft & Mallette.

Then She Will Fly.

Just as soon as an opportunity offers, Captain Jackson of the Puget Sound & Alaska Steamship Co., says he will have the City of Kingston ballasted properly. "The wheel," said he, "is at least ten inches out of water. This is the result of taking out the iron ballast which was in her before leaving the east. When our boat gets in trim, she can make between seventeen and eighteen miles an hour, and I guess that is all and possibly more than the Olympian can do."

Order Independent Foresters.

A dispatch from San Francisco says that Dr. Oronhyatekha of Toronto, Canada, a Mohawk Indian and head of six great tribes which were formerly located in New York, but are now in Canada, has arrived there and will leave for Los Angeles next week for the purpose of instituting the high court of Foresters of California. After performing this work he will visit Victoria, Portland, Vancouver and Winnipeg, and from there he will return to North Dakota where he will institute another high court. He is supreme chief of the ranger of the Order of Independent Foresters.

Clergymen for Westminster.

The Baptist church of Westminster some few weeks since, extended a unanimous invitation to the Rev. John W. Best of Brandon, to become the pastor of the church. Mr. Best has written this week accepting the call, and will most probably commence his duties on the third Sunday in May. From all that can be ascertained, Mr. Best is one of the best men in the Baptist ministry of the Dominion.

Rev. Mr. Tovey, Episcopal clergyman of Bournemouth, Hants, England, is en route to New Westminster, where he intends for the future to make his home.

Lazy Loafers.

An employment agent of Seattle says that about a week ago he received an order to engage 150 laborers for a railroad corporation. The pay was fixed at $2 per day for graders, and $2.25 and $2.50 for the lines and track layers. Board at $5 per week was guaranteed. He set to work to engage the men, and up to Sunday, the sixth day, he had succeeded in employing twelve men. Being of the matter he telegraphed to San Francisco for 100 men, and they will arrive at Seattle on the next steamer. "It is claimed that there are 2,000 unemployed men in the city," says the employment agent, "and I believe that there are nearly that number, but you can wager that nine out of every ten of them that you approach will refuse to accept work."

Ancient Literature.

Mr. Dennis Harris, who returned from England a few days ago, in an interview with the government paper complained that the emigration literature in the office of Mr. Beeton, emigration agent, is many years old. Events have followed each other in such rapid succession in this province during the past two or three years,—population has increased so rapidly, new regions have opened up so quickly and cities have arisen where forests waved only yesterday—that it is scarcely to be credited that the intelligent emigration agent of an intelligent government would think for a moment of circulating information that must now be entirely unreliable. The Provincial Secretary was offered copies of the special edition of the TIMES, for the purpose of supplying Mr. Beeton with reliable data in regard to the present status of this city and province, but Mr. Robson was afraid that by countenancing the TIMES efforts to advertise the country which he might be compromiting himself with the opposition and declined to pay cheap even at 5 cents a copy. It is really too bad that unreliable literature should be disseminated, and we trust now that Mr. Harris has called public attention to it that Mr. Beeton's office will be supplied with copies of the TIMES, which will give intending emigrants a knowledge of the province that they can not obtain by any other means.

The twenty fourth of May is rapidly approaching, and so far nothing has been done towards preparing for the event by a celebration. A movement was made several weeks ago, when the news of the Duke of Connaught's intended visit was announced, but as H. R. H. has so far not acknowledged the invitation extended to him, it is hardly probable that an effort will be made to get up a demonstration until he is heard from.

But a year of prosperity has lately passed over Victoria, and efforts should be made to make the customary celebration one of even greater significance than those of the past. Such occasions go far toward advertising the city, and they also tend to bring money to the citizens, and any such outlay to bring the affair about is in nine cases out of ten returned a hundred fold.

In view of the fact that the date is drawing rapidly near, it is high time that some action was taken, so that time may be had to make every preparation for the celebration. A meeting should be called at once to take steps in the matter, and ways and means provided, as well as a general plan of the proceedings mapped out. A sham fight has already been arranged for by the volunteer forces of Westminster and Victoria. The naval people will in all probability only be too willing to join.

One feature of the celebration should also be a fire tournament and contests. Such an attraction would draw to the city a great number of contestants for prizes, provided they be liberal ones, and the outlay would be a good investment. It is more than likely that at least 20 hose teams would compete, which would mean the bringing here of a great many people including the members of the teams and their friends, and consequently would be direct benefit to the city. A fire drill tournament is always an interesting event, and the contest being in the city would not have the effect of taking sight-seers away.

Other attractions should be included, and a celebration gotten up worthy in every way of the city bearing the Queen's honored name.

THE DARK SIDE.

One of the Phases of the Social Evil in Victoria.

This morning a young girl was summoned to appear before the police court magistrate on a charge of being an inmate of a house of ill-repute on Broad street. The accused pleaded guilty to the charge, and it was plain to be seen that she was a hound of her position, for she wept bitterly when before the court, and did not appear brazen in her demeanor.

Sergt. Walker explained to his honor that the girl had one day last week attempted to take her own life on account of bad treatment at the hands of a young man well known as a frequenter of such places. This man had been wanted by the police on a charge of frequenting a house of ill-fame, but could not be found. It seems that the man had been paying attention to the girl, and conceived thereby that he had a right to dog her. He proceeded to do so, but the result was that the girl felt grieved and tried to kill herself. Some excitement was caused thereby, and the police took action by having the girl summoned.

His honor remarked that it would be hardly just that the girl should be the only one punished. He believed the man should also be dealt with. The girl, who said she was twenty years old, but does not look over eighteen, in answer to the judge, said she had led a life of shame for two years and expected to continue. She had come here from California and had no friends.

His honor asked her if she would go away if the case was adjourned, and she promised she would, and the justice of the police court was tempered with mercy, the case being laid over for two days, thus giving the accused a chance to go away.

The police are still on the lookout for the real culprit, and if he is found it will probably be made very interesting for him.

Closing Out Sale.

Mrs. Jas. Russell will sell at cost her entire stock of fancy goods, comprising pom poms, Briggs' stamping patterns, embroideries, laces, etc. Business for sale, 125 Fort street. *

Death of Mr. Isaac Johns.

Mr. Isaac Johns, for many years customs officer at Vancouver, died in that city on Sunday after a lingering illness. The deceased gentleman was in early days in business in this city in the building now occupied by Hirst Bros., on Commercial street. His wife, a daughter of Mrs. John McGregor, of this city, died in December 1888. He leaves five children who now are doubly orphaned. Mr. Johns will be well and favorably known by the pioneer residents of this city, for his genial manner and openheartedness made him many warm and lasting friends.—Nanaimo Free Press.

Art Notice.

"Real Estate Exchange."

There has recently been a change in the firm of Dalby & Ballentyne, the firm now reading Dalby, Ballentyne & Claxton. The new partner is from Montreal, a man of extensive business experience, with a large circle of business acquaintances in Eastern Canada, where he has now gone in the interest of his firm, and to bring his family to permanently reside in Victoria. By securing Mr. Claxton the firm have added to their business strength and will push their real estate and insurance interests with increased vigor. Mr. Claxton is the son-in law of the late Andrew Robertson, Esq., who was one of Montreal's most prominent citizens, and his family will prove great acquisitions to our society.

The Steam Laundry.

Mr. Chas. Roland informs the TIMES that the steam laundry will be owned and operated by himself and Mr. W. C. Smith, who has had experience in the laundry business, but no company will be formed. The large cracker factory built on Fort street a year or two ago by Nesbitt & Co., was selected to day for the business. The machinery has not been ordered as yet, it being the policy of the promoters to purchase everything in Victoria that can be made here. Mr. Roland will leave for Seattle, Portland and San Francisco in a few days to inspect the steam laundries there, in order to be better able to form a correct idea of what will be required in the business here. The Sound cities support three or four steam laundries each, and their work is above comparison to that done by the Chinese.

The sale of the very cheap property in the Work Estate has begun. Come early to secure a well located building lot for $275.

Well Rid of Them.

The now notorious Edward Smith appeared for the third time in the police court this morning on a charge of being a frequenter of a house of ill fame. Efforts had paid $100 into the city treasury during the last few weeks in the shape of fines levied for the same offence. Heretofore he has always pleaded guilty, but he pleaded not guilty this morning and asked for a remand, giving as his reason that he could not afford to pay a $20 fine, and hoped that by securing a remand he would be able to leave the city before the case came up again. His honor did not see it in that light, and proceeded with the case when Smith pleaded guilty at once, and a fine of $10 was imposed. Smith with a nonchalant air threw a $20 gold piece on the clerk's table, and receiving his change walked away, promising that both himself and his female companion would betake themselves to pastures new. The city is well rid of a couple of worthless wretches.

Do You Want a Building Site Near the City?

THE WESTSIDE,

GOVERNMENT STREET, VICTORIA, B. C.

We believe Truth is the Corner Stone

To-day of permanently profitable advertising. Whatever statements are made must be verified up by merit.

It is useless to say we have goods at such and such a price unless we really have them.

It is no good to say they are cheap unless we are sure such is the fact.

The experience gained during a long period in the Dry Goods business, together with ample facilities, enables us to sell first-class goods as low, if not lower, than any other house (we make no exception whatever).

We are convinced that our stock for the Spring exceeds any heretofore offered, and, confident of our ability to give satisfaction, we respectfully solicit your patronage.

Our Spring Opening.

The time has come when you must think about Spring wear, and we want you to connect these thoughts with Our Stock and Name. The preparations for Spring business have been made on a very extensive scale with a view to offering bargains the utmost latitude of choice in styles and prices. We are now about to submit the stock, which represents our taste and judgment, to the critical test of public opinion in our Spring Opening, and hope to hear your voice in the general verdict. You will find our stock adequately representative of the best the market affords, both in materials and styles; and we guarantee our prices to be as low in every case as the quality of our goods will warrant. Prices must always be considered in relation to quality, and the final test of quality is actual wear. We are confident that the test of wear will prove the actual worth of the goods we offer. Before you make your Spring Purchases we respectfully ask an examination of our goods. We shall not importune any one to buy, feeling that if our stock will not make buyers, nothing we can say will win us custom. A half hour spent in looking over our assortment of goods will give you a fair idea of the styles that will be popular in this Spring season, and we can only hope it will be as much pleasure for you to see as for us to show our goods.
